

Scott Control Foam Frequent Use Hand Cleanser D1D7 (4x1.2ltr)

Additional Information

Product Code	839919
Product Description	Elevate your washroom experience with trusted and familiar Scott® Control™ washroom solutions, designed to support compliance control in the workplace. Where hygiene is the number one priority, choose Scott® Control™ foam frequent use hand cleanser to support hygiene practices and help contamination control in your workplace. Our touchless electronic dispenser system supports high hygiene standards in the workplace as it eliminates the need for users to touch the product in order to dispense the soap, helping to reduce the risk of cross contamination. When the user puts their hand under the electric soap dispenser, the right amount of product will automatically dispense into the users hand. This controlled dispensing helps to minimise waste by ensuring users only take the amount they need, improving cost without compromising on hygiene standards
